30 days of Ramadan activity bought to you by Madrasa Darul Yasin Team

Assalamu Alikum,

We would like share with you the importance of teaching our young students the values and lessons that this special time brings.

We have provided a list of 30 days of Ramadan activity that you can use to help convey the benefits and lessons of Ramadan to your students.

We encourage you to use these messages as a guide to help spark discussions and reflection in your classrooms. By teaching our students about the importance of self-control, gratitude, compassion, and charity during Ramadan, we can help shape them into better individuals and members of our community.

Furthermore, we would like to remind you of Darul Yasin, our madrasa's fundraising campaign, which is currently ongoing. The future of Darul Yasin is now in serious doubt, and we are seeking your support.

The Madrasa was established in April 2018 (Registered charity 1192081) with the hope of meeting the religious and spiritual needs of the Muslim communities in Beeston, South Leeds.

We offer Alim/Alima, Sanatain, Hifz, Maktaab and Ladies classes to over 100+ children.

We kindly ask you to support our cause, and encourage your students and their families to do the same.

Together, let's make this Ramadan a meaningful and impactful one for our students and our community.

Donating to Madrasa Darul Yasin is a Sadaqah Jariyah, a ceaseless charity that will continue to benefit the community for years to come.

You can also choose to make a loan (karz-e-hasana), which we will repay in full, as agreed with you. We hope that you will consider supporting Madrasa Darul Yasin and its mission to provide high-quality education for the Muslim community in South Leeds.

The Prophet Muhammad (peace-be-upon-him) said that
"CHARITY DOES NOT DECREASE WEALTH".

DONATE TODAY AND SAVE OUR MADRASA!

We ask for your support in this critical time. Any donation, no matter how small, will make a significant difference.

Day 1: Islamic Art Project

Activity:

Create a Ramadan themed art project using various materials such as paint, coloured pencils, or markers. Have them create Islamic-themed art and crafts such as masjid models, a crescent moon Islamic calligraphy, or Islamic geometric patterns.

Day 2: Quran Reading Challenge

Activity:

Children will set a goal to read a specific number of pages from the Quran during the month of Ramadan. They can track their progress on a chart and receive a small prize or certificate for reaching their goal.

Day 3: Ramadan Scavenger Hunt

Activity:

Children will search for and collect items around the house or madrasa that are related to Ramadan, such as dates, prayer beads, or a Quran. Once they have found all the items, they will complete a quiz or activity to test their knowledge of the items they found.

Day 4: Make Your Own Fast-Breaking Meal

Activity:

Children will work in groups to plan, prepare and present a healthy fast-breaking meal. They will learn about the importance of nutrition during Ramadan and the significance of breaking the fast with dates and water.

Day 5: Charity and kindness Day

Activity:

Children will learn about the importance of charity during Ramadan and will participate in various acts of kindness and charity. This could include making cards for the elderly, visiting a local soup kitchen, or donating clothes to a charity.

Day 6: Islamic Storytelling

Activity:

Children will listen to a story from Islamic literature or Hadith collection, such as a story about Prophet Muhammad or a Sahaba. Have the children gather in a circle and take turns telling Islamic stories from the Quran or Hadith. Encourage the children to use their imagination and creativity while telling the stories.

Day 7: Ramadan Memory Game

Activity:

Children will play a memory game using Ramadan-related words and pictures, such as "prayer" or "fasting." They will match the words and pictures to learn new vocabulary and concepts related to Ramadan.

Day 8: Ramadan Cooking Class

Activity:

Children will learn how to make a traditional Ramadan dish, such as samosas or dates filled with nut butter. They will learn about the cultural significance of the dish and the importance of breaking the fast with dates.

Day 9: Islamic Geography

Activity:

Children will learn about the geography of Islamic countries and the location of important Islamic landmarks, such as Mecca and Medina. They will create a map or a collage of these landmarks.

Day 10: Salah/Prayer Reflection

Activity:

Children will reflect on their own prayer practices and make a plan to improve their Salah during the month of Ramadan.

Day 11: Ramadan Journal

Children will create a journal to document their experiences during Ramadan. They will reflect on their fasting, prayer, and acts of charity, and write about any challenges or successes they encounter.

Day 12: Zakat Calculator

Activity:

Children will learn about the Islamic obligation of Zakat (charity) and use a zakat calculator to determine how much they should give based on their savings. They will then donate the calculated amount to a local charity.

Day 13: Islamic History

Activity:

Children will learn about important events and figures in Islamic history, such as the Battle of Badr or Aisha bint Abi Bakr. They will create a timeline or a poster to showcase their learning.

Day 14: Islamic Calligraphy

Activity:

Children will learn about the art of Islamic calligraphy and create their own calligraphy piece using traditional Islamic scripts such as Thuluth or Kufic.

Teach the children the art of Islamic calligraphy and have them practice writing Arabic letters and words. Provide them with calligraphy pens and paper.

Day 15: Taraweeh Prayer

Activity:

Children will learn about the importance of Taraweeh prayer during Ramadan and will participate in a Taraweeh prayer at the madrasa. They will also learn about the etiquette and manners of prayer.

Day 16: Ramadan Crafts

Activity:

Children will create Ramadan-themed crafts such as paper lanterns, crescent moon suncatchers, or prayer bead bracelets. They will also learn about the significance of these items in Ramadan.

Day 17: Islamic Finance

Activity:

Children will learn about Islamic finance and the principles of Islamic banking. They will also learn about the concept of Riba (usury) and its prohibition in Islam.

Day 18: Dua (Supplication) Day

Activity:

Children will learn about the importance of making dua (supplication) during Ramadan and will make a list of their own personal duas. They will also learn about the etiquette of making dua and the best times to make dua.

Day 19: Make your own prayer mat

Activity:

Give each child a piece of fabric and some craft materials such as markers, glitter, and glue.

Have the children design and decorate their prayer mat with Islamic symbols and patterns.

Encourage them to use their creativity and imagination while creating their prayer mat.

Day 20: Hajj Simulation

Activity:

Children will learn about the rituals and significance of the Hajj, the Islamic pilgrimage to Mecca. They will also participate in a Hajj simulation, where they will perform the rituals of Hajj in a symbolic way.

Day 21: Islamic Calendar

Activity:

Children will learn about the Islamic calendar and the significance of different Islamic months, such as Ramadan and Muharram. They will create a calendar or a timeline of important Islamic dates.

Day 22: Quran Reading Competition

Activity:

Divide the children into groups and have them compete in a Quran reading competition.

Provide each group with a section of the Quran to memorize and recite.

Day 23: Islamic Science

Activity:

Children will learn about Islamic contributions to science and technology, such as the works of Al-Khwarizmi or Al-Jazari. They will create a presentation or a poster showcasing their learning.

Day 24: Ramadan Feasts

Activity:

Children will learn about the traditional Ramadan feasts and the significance of breaking the fast with dates and water. They will also learn about the etiquette of inviting others to break the fast and sharing food.
